Making of Meaning: Exhibition of Works by Women Artists & Artisans
November 10 – 15, 2014
IVS Gallery, Indus Valley School of Art and Architecture

The Making of Meaning— (in Urdu Mouj dar Mouj) is an exhibition of women artists organized by the Faiz Foundation Trust (Some in collaboration with women artisans) from the religious minority communities in Pakistan. Two of them belong to the majority community but their work involves concerns of minority groups. Another participant is from India, who was on a residency at the school of visual Art and Design at BNU, Lahore in 2014. The exhibition comprises paintings, sculptures, photographs, a video installation and mixed media works and is part of a larger project to do with the Freedom of Religious Belief undertaken by the Human Rights Commission of Pakistan and supported by the European Union. The HRCP together with other partners in documenting and investigating the rights of religious minorities in Pakistan. The Faiz Fundation Trust is looking specifically at cultural rights of minorities. The work of women artists is in connection with exploring freedom of artistic expression and the relevant concerns the artists have.

The exhibition will be seen in Lahore, Karachi, Peshawar and Quetta.
