Abstract
My topic was the ethics of advertising and their effectiveness. What I was basically exploring was if they are ethics, what are they, how are they being applied and their manipulation as well as the reasons behind them. I tried to cover all the angles and go about it as objectively as possible.