Abstract

Karachi is also known as the metropolitan city is one of the most densely populated and the busiest city of Pakistan. Being one of the demanding cities, it has heavy traffic at almost every hour of the day and in order to control the traffic and maintain rules and regulations, road signage is retained. Road signage has proved to be quite helpful and useful for the drivers of Karachi and without it, it would be a nightmare to drive in this city.